Accommodation The Calling Lakes Centre has on-site accommodation available for up to 54 people in their two guest lodges. A block of bedrooms is being held for the SBBA Conference until January 25. Please contact the Centre at 332-5691 before January 25 if you want to book accommodation there. Rooms may still be available after that date, but availability cannot be guaranteed. For information about the Calling Lakes Centre, check www.callinglakes.ca

Financial Statements Financial statements for SBBA and the Loans Co-op will be presented at the Annual General Meeting. Members are welcome to see the statements before then. If members contact the SBBA office, the statements can be sent to them by mail or e-mail.

Motion to Waive the Audit The cost of having a qualified person perform an audit or even a financial review can be well over $1,000. The requirement to have an audit can be waived if all members at the AGM agree. As in previous years, the directors will be presenting motions to waive the audits for 2012.
